

Dr. Decker at the Baptist church Tues-with relatives in Coyle and Oklahoma Mills are spending several days visiting son, Lahronie Mills, nephew, Jasper M.
Mrs. A. J. Wright, Mrs. C. L. Mills and day evening for the benefit of the Sunday school and B. Y. P. U., was a success. Mr. Louis Ferguson of Oklahoma City, spent the week-end visiting relatives, Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Brewer. Rev. and Mrs. J. E. Pettaway, pastor of the Baptist church and wife, and Rev. Monroe Albritton delegates for the B. Y.
P. U., attended the Creek and Seminole Baptist Sunday school and B. Y. P. U. convention, which convened two miles north of Boley on the 15th at the Valley Grove Baptist church. The "Smartonian Club," sponsored by Mrs. N. Talton and Mr. W. L. Bush plans for the opening of its new miniature golf course Friday and Saturday evening, July 24 and 25. The chief purpose of the club is to improve and stimulate community recreation. The officers and members are inviting everyone to be present. Public pleasure unlimited assured. All games on the opening nights will be free. Lawyer J.
W. Thompson motored over to the convention at the Valley Grove Baptist church last week, accompanied by Mr.
M. F. Tamplin. Sick list: Mrs. Frank Boles, Mr. Brady White, Mrs. aKtie M.
Adams, Mrs. Mattie Thomas.