

CLEARVIEW

Services at the First Baptist church were enjoyed by all who attended. The new pastor, Rev. C. B. Albritton, of Holdenville, preached two wonderful sermons at 11 a. m. and 7:30 p. m., respectively. There was one member who joined the church and a candidate for baptism in the person of Jasper Mills. Other members of the church are looking forward to the pie supper Saturday night and the regular Christmas program to be Thursday night of next week. The high school chorus of Douglass-Rosenwald school, under the skilled direction of Miss T. A. Chatman, will present "The Mystery of Bethlehem," a Christmas cantata on Wednesday night, Dec. 23. They have been practicing for some time and feel that the cantata will be enjoyed by all who attend. The Smartonian Club entertained with a "Backward" party on Friday of last week. Everyone enjoyed the evening and has given the club the credit and honor of being pleasant entertainers. Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Bush have returned from Tulsa, where they were visiting the mother of Mrs. Bush, Mrs. Roland, who is reported much improved at this writing. Miss Edna Armstrong had as her dinner guesets, Miss O. B. Owens and Mr. R. P. Jones of this city, and Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Lewis and Mr. Brown of Cushing. Mr. O. C. Ervin was the dinner guest of Rev. Morris. The sewing class of adults entertained their capable instructor, Miss E. J. Dixon, with a surprise party Wednesday afternoon from 3:30 to 5. Those present as guests of the sewing class, were the faculty members of Douglass-Rosenwald high school, Rev. A. D. Taylor, Miss Jessie Starks and Mrs. F. B. Brooks. The first basketball game of the season will be played Friday, when the boys will meet Wetumka. Last year the boys ost only one game. We do not intend to lose any this year. Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Bush accompanied by Miss Evelyn L. Evans, returned Sunday from a week's visit in Tulsa, where they visited Mrs. Bush's mother, Mrs. Pannell Roland, who was very sick. They report her condition much improved. On their way back home they made stops in Perry, Mr. Bush's old home town. He met a number of old friends, among whom were Mr. and Mrs. Lillie Talliferro and Messrs. Mayberry, uncle and cousin of Mr. West Mayberry. From Perry they stopped in Guthrie for a short while. Then to Oklahoma City, where they spent the night with Miss Evans' relatives. Mrs. Esther Carmon and little daughter, Dorothy Mae were guests of Miss B. H. Haynes.