Sunday services were short in attendance on account of rainy weather. Miss Erma Marina returned home ill Friday from Wetumka, where she is teaching in the city school. At this writing she is reported not doing so well. We hope to see her up and out soon. Mrs. A. D. Taylor has been indisposed for several days and is reported somewhat improved. Mr. J. C. Milton, who has been ill for two weeks, is slowly improving. Rev. Mumphrey of Boley, was in town the past week and visited the B. Y. P. U. at the First Baptist church Sunday evening and lectured to the young people. Mr. Appleberry, the candy salesman from Tulsa, was in town Saturday with a line of fresh candies manufactured in the colored candy shop in Tulsa. Mr. Conway Gauff of Amarillo, Texas, arrived on the 11th and visited with his daughters. Mrs. Ruth Gauff Wright, wife of Mr. A. J. Wright, and Miss Trullie Gauff, who resides with her mother, Mrs. B. Cooper. It had been thirteen years since the father had seen the girls as little tots. It was a joyous meeting. Mr. Gauff and daughter, Ruth, and little granddaughter, Bernadine Wright, were entertained as dinner guests at the home of Mrs. Ada Davis Tuesday, the 15th. Mr. Gauff was also entertained at the home of Prof. and Mrs. F. B. Brooks by the Smartonian Club Tuesday evening. He departed Wednesday morning, the 16th, for other parts of the state before returning home. He motored through.
