

DISTRICT COURT CASES

First National Bank of Muskogee vs. James Dunleavy. et al. Transcript from Muskogee county.

Charles E. Nash vs. D. W. Bouilly, et al. Suit upon cost bond in the sum of $490.00 for alleged costs and damages.

Dona C. Malot vs. W. H. Dill. Suit on note.

N. H. Starks vs. C. W. Cossey and City election Board of Clearview. This is an election contest from the colored town of Clearview where in one N. H. Starks, alleges several things which seems to indicate that he was a victim of a steam roller somewhat like a one famous in Chicago--property of expresident Taft.

Starks says that he was a candidate for J. P. in the city primary at Clearview, and that he and one C. W. Cossey had a tie vote of 16 votes each.

Then Starks alleges that the election board excluded everyone from the rooms and cast three more votes for Cossey. He also alleges that votes cast for him were thrown out as mutilated votes, and mutilated ballots were counted for Cossey. He also alleges that the election was conducted in a wholly illegal manner, and alleges further that he was nominated by a majority of five votes.

Because he was not given the certificate of nomination he alleges that he will be greatly and irreparably injured and damaged, and further seeks to restrain Cossey from holding the office.
