

Clearview News

Mrs. Alice Castlow's body was taken to Patterson, Texas Saturday night for burial, her birth place. She was 68 years of age. She has been in ill health for a long time. Mrs. Castlow was manager of a grocery store and Tavern for many years. She and her husband E. D. came to Clearview from Texas in 1908.

The Rally at Salt Creek Baptist church was well attended Sunday p.m. Rev. Fred Willis of Weleetka was the speaker. Rev. W. R. Grundy of Henryetta was pulpit guest. The offering was $57.00, Rev. D.A. Knighten is pastor.

Mrs. Bruner, Mrs. Gains, Mrs. Taylor, Mrs. Porter, Mr. and Mrs. Wheeler Raglund and Mr. and Mrs. Nathan Horn of Wetunka attended worship services at the Church of God Church here Sunday.

Mr. Theodore Franklin of Guthrie was visiting here Sunday.

Mrs. Della Harris spent the week end as guest of Mrs. M. J. Alford in Wewoka, Okla.

Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Owens and daughter Elaine, were Sunday evening guests of the Blacks.

Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Golden of Norfolk and Mr. Raymond Ballard of Okmulgee were guests of the Ballards Sunday.

Mrs. Rebecca Glasper, E. D. McBreyer and Mr. and Mrs. James Black attended Mrs. Reeds funeral Thursday in Weleetka.

Rev. Higgs, pastor at the Church of God church delivered a very touching message Sunday a.m. to a fair attendance.

Mrs. Ella Collins visited her husband Flemons Collins, in the Vets hospital at Muskogee last week.

Rev. Fred Willis pastor of the Northfork Baptist church was at his post of duty Sunday a.m. The spirit ran high during his sermon. The attendance was fair.

Mr. and Mrs. Sanko Thomas left Sunday for Cordell, Okla. to pull bolls for a few weeks.

Please give me your news by Sunday each week.

GO TO CHURCH SUNDAY