

PERSONAL & LOCAL

Mr. Wm. Irving spent Easter in Langston and visited several old friends and acquaintances.

Mrs. Bessie Warren has been slightly indisposed this week.

Easter Sunday was observed. Splendid programs were rendered at all of the churches.

Miss Rebecca Grayson gives splendid satisfaction as clerk for the Oliver Grocery Company.

Mrs. N. E. Sutton had a splendid run in the sale of her Easter hats.

The literary society was re-organized last Monday night. Mr. H. M. Oliver is President. A full list officers will appear later.

The talk of the town is the Old Folks Home, which will be located at Clearview.

Boost for the canning factory; don't knock, because you can't win the game. Then it is by far cheaper to boost.

Mr. Shelly has been appointed deputy county weigher and is arranging to make a large cotton yard near the station.

The Farmers' Conference met last Saturday and had an arousing session. Mr. Tucker was elected Vice-President of the conference.

The gin draws a big crowd on Saturday since the mill has been installed for grinding corn.