

CONTRACTOR HILL IS MOVING THINGS

TWO STORY GARMENT

FACTORY NOW GOING UP

WATCH CLEARVIEW GROW

The first dirt was thrown in the presence of a crowd in the beginning of The Clearview Overalls and Gloves factory here Monday, July 15, as per program. Contractor J. H. Hill turned the soil and a great cheer went up. This factory is a whopper, it will be 100 ft. by 200 ft. two stories high and when completed it will furnish employment for 250 people. Hurrah! for Clearview and her wide awake citizens.

Go after another factory. As we told you, you will see Clearview the largest Negro town in short in the United States. We intend to give employment to our people, that is what they want. We have plenty of fine brick shale, and we are going after a brick kilm, and that is a job too.

Some of the enterprising citizens in the person of Dr. Scott, Drake, Starks, Cossey and others have established a park on our "Potato Hill" mountain (Clearview) and preaching services were held in the park Sunday evening and a large crowd turned out. Good for Clearview with her park near the clouds, we are certain to have plenty of air and no hot air either but a cool gentle breeze. Come on the mountain and get a good breeze these hot
