

A. L. Gammil Dies

A. L. Gammil, 89, passed away April 28 in a Sapulpa rest home. His funeral was Sunday at 2 p.m. at the First Baptist church.

Mr. Gammil, known as "Uncle Link," came to Clearview in 1916. For many years he owned and operated a grocery store and blacksmith shop here. Due to his health, he retired a few years ago.

He was given Masonic rites by local lodge No. 90.

He leaves a grandson, several other relatives and many friends.

At the funeral, Rev. Fred Willis gave a prayer, Rev. D. K. Knighten, scripture and Rev. A. A. Jackson delivered the message. The Clearview burial association was in charge. Burial was in the town cemetery.
