

TOWN GOVERNMENT AND POSTAL SERVICE

In 1910 or 1911 the town government was setup by incorporation. Precincts and Wards were established. A Mayor was elected, a policeman and a Justice of the Peace were named. Clearview was incorporated again in October 27, 1981. The town was divided into three wards and the following councilmen were elected:

- Ward #1 (Western 1/3 of town) Mrs. Naomi Owens
- Ward #2 (Middle 1/3 of town) Mrs. Patsy Zackery French
- Ward #3 (Eastern 1/3 of town) Mrs. Marie Walker Bush
- Mrs. Ardell Drake Withers was elected Clerk.

The first U. S. Post Office was established September 30, 1902. In 1904 an order was issued by the U. S. Postal Department changing the name Clearview Post Office to Abe Lincoln Post Office, but was rescinded a month later, retaining the original name.

John Grayson was named the first postmaster. Those who succeeded him were N. H. Starks, M. W. (Wash) Irving, Mary Doggett, Mattie E. Lucas and Imogene Chilton Bruton.

From the Clearview Post Office, the outlying area was served by a rural route carrier. The first rural route mail carrier was Ellis Washington, followed by P. J. Simms, L. H. Haynes, J. P. Owens, Robert (Bob) Burden, and presently Jimmie Burden. J. P. Owens served as rural route carrier from 1927 to 1974.

During the early 70's the Clearview and Weleetka routes were consolidated due to a vacancy in the Weleetka rural delivery service, thus, moving the Clearview carrier to the Weleetka office from which he retired in 1974, after having served for 47 years in the rural delivery service.

Postal service from the Clearview office was continued until November 17, 1992 when the Postal Department discontinued service from the office after 90 years, 1 month and 18 days. However, mail service was provided to the area by the rural carrier from the Weleetka Post Office along with rural route and cluster box service.

Clearview Post Office building.

Retirement of postmaster Mrs. Imogene Chilton Bruton, from Clearview Post Office in 1992.